UM HOMECOMING KING AND QUEEN
TO BE CROWNED AT SOS FRIDAY

MISSOULA--

Kim Christopher, a senior liberal arts major from Polson, and Deloit R. Wolfe Jr., a sophomore liberal arts major from Missoula, will reign over 1981 Homecoming festivities at the University of Montana. They will be crowned at Singing-on-the-Steps Friday at 9:15 p.m. on the UM oval.

The Homecoming king and queen and their attendants were selected from nominees of campus living groups through a process administered by Tanan-of-Spur, sophomore service honorary.

Members of their court are Kristi Kliber, Missoula; Brian McJunkin and Bill Wayland, both of Billings; and Susan Gust, Big Timber. They represent, respectively, Alpha Phi sorority, Jesse Hall, Elrod Hall, and Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Christopher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Christopher of Polson, is a Former J.V. Lady Griz basketball player and a Spur. She is a resident assistant at Jesse Hall and a Little Sister of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. She enjoys weightlifting, cooking and sewing.

Wolfe, a graduate of Hellgate High School, is the son of Dr. Deloit R. Wolfe and Mrs. William O. Coffee. He is a cheer leader and sophomore class president of Phi Delta Theta. He plans a career in architecture. His hobbies are skiing, playing soccer and sailing.
